

Finance and procurement for net zero (FIPRO) - interview data

Terms & conditions

1. The Finance and procurement for net zero (FIPRO) - interview data contains 8 transcripts of elite interviews carried out by the University of Bristol discussing procuring, financing, and delivering place-based energy services in the UK, and is hereinafter referred to as “the Data”
2. The Data has been anonymised and redacted to hide the interviewees’ identity. Additionally, access to the Data is restricted due to the nature of the content and will be granted on a case-by-case basis.
3. Decisions on granting access to the Data are under the sole authority of the owner of the Data - Colin Nolden (colinnolden@mail.com)
4. Requests for access to the Data made through CEDA will be directed towards Colin Nolden, who will review requests and inform the EDC team on the decision to grant or deny this request for access to the Data.
5. The Data is supplied to the named applicant for academic research purposes only and should not be passed on to third parties (please make a separate application for all users who need access to the Data)
6. The user may not re-publish the Data or any derivatives of the Data, except with the express permission of the Data owner (see item 3 above). Use of the Data must be non-commercial, and attribution to the owner of the Data must be provided if relevant.